

Oil Painting for Beginners

Instructor: Sarah Norsworthy

Artist and Craftsman is a great local store to buy from in the U-district, as well as Dick Blick. I've also saved money buying materials from Jerry's Artarama on-line, just expect orders to take a couple of weeks.

Oil Paint: Student Grade, Gamblin 1980 brand is a great option or Winton

- One 150 ml tube titanium white
- Set of 37 ml tube paints student grade-- cad red hue, ultramarine blue, cobalt blue, ivory black, cad yellow hue, yellow ochre, burnt sienna, quinachridone red,
- Optional colors: raw sienna, sap green, manganese blue hue

Bristle Brushes – if you find a bag of cheap sale bristle brushes that has a good variety that can work rather than picking out individual brushes

- Filbert, size # 2, #8
- Round, size #2, #4, #10
- Flat, size #8, #12
- 1 household brush (cheap chip or black foam brush is fine) 1.5"-3" for gesso
- 2-3 palette knives (I prefer metal), trowel style
- 1 small diamond shape
- 1 medium diamond shape
- 1 longer style optional

Medium, Primer, Solvent:

- Gamblin linseed oil 8 oz.
- Gesso 16 oz.
- Gambsol 16 oz.

Supports:

- Pad watercolor paper (medium-large size)
- 1 wood panel 12" x 12"
- 2 Prestretched Canvases approx 20" x 30"

Other:

- 1 coil brush cleaner jar (or homemade cleaning jar with wire coil or tin can inside jar with holes in it)
- 2 (8oz. Min.) Squeeze bottles with caps
- Paint scraper (only if you use a glass palette)
- Disposable latex gloves
- Painter's tape or white artist tape
- Pad of disposable palettes (or a small glass palette about 12" x 12)
- 1 drawing board (can be made from a piece of Masonite to accommodate 18 x 24 in. paper)
- Tablecloth

Optional for drawing and note taking:

- 1 small notebook
- 1 pencil
- 1 eraser
