ARTSArt AppreciationHow Modernism Altered the Course of Art History

09/28/2026 10:00AM - 12:00PM John, Victoria
 Modernism began near the turn of the 20th century as a major break from traditional forms and pushed the boundaries of what art could be. Encompassing a multiplicity of artists and sub-classifications, Modernism expressed itself across every artistic discipline, from literature to music to the visual arts. Starting with the 1913 New York Armory Show that introduced American and European avant-garde art, we'll explore a diverse group of artists and art movements including Fauvism, Cubism, Futurism, Surrealism, Abstract Expressionism, and up to the present time. We'll discuss how Van Gogh, Cezanne, Seurat, and Toulouse-Lautrec were essential to the development of Modernism. A sampling of artists includes Matisse, Picasso, af Klint, Kandinsky, Mondrian, Tobey, O'Keeffe, Carr, Frankenthaler, Bearden, Lewis, Lawrence, and WalkingStick. To this day, these innovative modernists continue to inspire contemporary artists through their use of unique techniques, mediums, and subjects.

Fall at Seattle Art Galleries

09/30/2026 12:30PM - 2:30PM John, Victoria
 What better way to celebrate the abundant display of fall colors than to explore the diverse art exhibited in Seattle galleries. We will meet weekly at local art galleries to learn about the current exhibition, ask questions, and peruse the space. Following each visit, we will gather for afternoon coffee to discuss the artwork and share interests. A sampling of galleries includes Greg Kucera, Foster/White, ArtX Contemporary, No. 85, J. Rinehart, B612, Patricia Rovzar, Steinbrueck Native Gallery, Woodside/Braseth, Harris/Harvey, and the Seattle Art Museum Gallery. Whether you are a seasoned gallery visitor or a newcomer, please join us to experience this fun opportunity to be a part of an art-loving community.

CeramicsBeginning Ceramics

10/10/2026 10:00AM - 1:00PM Aire, Iphis
 10/10/2026 2:00PM - 5:00PM Aire, Iphis
 Transform a lump of clay into a piece of art! Using basic wheel-throwing and hand-building methods, learn to create cups, bowls, boxes, and more. Individualized instruction and demonstrations of the technical underpinnings will give you a strong foundation in the ceramic arts. This course is intended for beginner students new to ceramics. Students may repeat for up to four quarters; students with four or more quarters of any level of ceramics will not be permitted to join.

Intermediate and Advanced Ceramics

10/09/2026 6:00PM - 6:50PM Aire, Iphis
 Take your ceramics to the next level and refine your wheel-throwing and hand-building skills. You will learn from the instructor and each other in this class as you hone your clay skills. Each class will include a demo or discussion of techniques according to the instructor's curriculum or students' expressed interests. North Seattle College fires to ^6 with no exceptions. Outside glazes must be approved by the studio technician. Previous ceramics experience is required.

Color TheoryExploring Color Theory Through Watercolor

10/13/2026 6:30PM - 9:00PM Bundi, Robin
 Want to become more confident with color? Color can be a complex subject matter but with a few essential rules it can be broken down. In this class students will get to explore the basics of color theory with watercolor. Students will start off with exploring the color wheel and principles of color theory. Next they'll develop a few dynamic color palettes, experiment with mixing watercolor, and learn how to use color theory in paintings. Students will leave class with self colored charts, diagrams, and confidence with color! This class is open to any skill level.

Drawing

Introduction to Drawing

09/30/2026 6:00PM - 8:00PM Norsworthy, Sarah

10/01/2026 3:00PM - 5:00PM Norsworthy, Sarah

Learn the basic techniques of drawing while working from still life, places in our immediate environment and each other in this introductory drawing class. We will focus on the building blocks of drawing such as composition, measurement, line, shape, value, gesture and mark. You will become familiar with a variety of materials and approaches to drawing by studying artwork both historical and contemporary. Although instruction will be rooted in drawing from observation, we will explore the potential to abstract from what we see and experiment with working from memory. We will engage in group discussions throughout the course.

Introduction to Drawing 2

09/29/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM Norsworthy, Sarah

Get creative while developing skills learned in an Introduction to Drawing course. We will advance our approaches to creating still lifes, as well as working from the landscape and the figure, both from observation (if possible) and from memory. Students will explore concepts of space, light, and form through previous knowledge of materials such as graphite, charcoal, and ink.

Jewelry

Beginning Jewelry Fabrication

10/05/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM Quarles, M

Learn how to produce your own jewelry design! Beginners are encouraged, but more experienced metalsmiths are welcome too. We'll practice basic metal fabrication and silver soldering techniques with non-ferrous metals and stones to create finished jewelry pieces.

The first class will be mandatory. If you miss the first class you will have to be dropped, and you will be issued a full refund.

Intermediate and Advanced Jewelry Fabrication

10/06/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM Foy, Peggy

Take your jewelry design skills to the next level. Do you have an idea for a complex project you've been wanting to tackle, but not sure where to start, or need to advance your skills to make it happen? Learn multistep soldering, stone setting, forming and finishing techniques that will help make your elaborate jewelry design ideas a reality. The first class is mandatory. If you miss the first class, you will have to be dropped, and you will be issued a full refund.

Mixed Media

Mixed Media Self Abstraction

10/07/2026 10:00AM - 1:00PM

Hamburger, Ryan

Discover your own creative language and use it to develop your artistic practice. In this class we will use multiple mediums and learn new techniques to push ourselves in exploring self-expression. This class is perfect for someone who has taken abstract art classes before and is wondering "What next?". We will combine mediums: watercolor, acrylic, collage, pencil, oil pastel, and ink. We will explore the use of symbols, written words, texture, drawing and the use of representational images. The goal of this class is to access ourselves as a source for expression; to find an abstract narrative that resonates with you. 2D abstract class experience is helpful.

Music

Beginning Guitar

9/20/2026 7:00PM - 9:00PM Kohl, Frank
Pick up the guitar and play! Learn chords, strum patterns, tablature, and notes while learning songs. Pick up some basic theory. Have fun while learning the fundamentals that make guitar playing rewarding in this comfortable class environment. Bring your acoustic guitar and required books to class.

The Performance Experience

09/29/2026 6:30PM - 8:30PM Mesler, David
This class is a space to create, perform, and try new things. It's open to instrumentalists, singers, dancers, actors, comedians, poets, and anyone who wants to get up and share their work. You'll start by presenting your own style, then team up with others for duos, small groups, and collaborative pieces. Each session gives you a chance to perform, get feedback, and build confidence in a low-pressure setting. You'll meet other creatives, swap ideas, and see what happens when different styles come together. Bring whatever you use to create and show up ready to experiment. Open to all. No experience necessary.

Group Voice for All Levels

09/30/2026 6:30PM - 8:30PM Mesler, David
Discover and enhance your unique singing voice in a supportive group setting. This class focuses on vocal fundamentals, technique, and expressivity, helping you develop strong musicianship. Through lyric analysis, melodic interpretation, and personalized song choices, you'll unlock a wide range of vocal tools. Pieces are chosen based on the student's needs as well as tastes. Open to all. No experience necessary.

Jazz Ensemble

10/07/2026 8:00PM - 10:00PM Radke, Fred
Practice and perform in concert the newest big-band arrangements which cover all styles of big-band jazz. This class combines talents of professional and student musicians in the big-band experience. Membership is by audition only, which take place during the first class; registration is required within 10 business days of the first class session.

Songwriting for Beginning Pianists

10/03/2026 11:00AM - 1:00PM Mesler, David
Get creative and write those songs you've always wanted to write! And in an encouraging, fun environment! Curriculum includes: Hand positions and coordination, chords and melody writing, progressions and patterns, rhythms and notation, brainstorming and lyric writing, and structuring forms. All genres. Includes access to practice rooms on campus.

Vocal Performance and Stage Technique Workshop

10/07/2026 Arranged Funes, Gina
Learn more about vocal performance, techniques, and stage presence in individual study with well-known singer and recording artist, Gina Funes. You will have a piano accompanist, and a recital is performed at the end of each quarter with the pianist and an option to perform with big band accompaniment. Ten weekly, one-hour sessions to be arranged with instructor via Zoom.

Expressive Guitar: Beyond the Basics

10/28/2026 7:00PM - 9:00PM Cortese, Jared
 This class is for intermediate beginners who already know a few chords or scales but want to take their guitar playing to the next step. If you've ever felt stuck playing the same patterns or struggled to make your music sound expressive, this class will help you move forward. You'll work on technique and theory together, focusing on how to use chord shapes, scales, and rhythm in a way that makes your playing more musical. The goal is to give you practical skills you can actually use when you pick up your guitar, not just abstract ideas. Please bring your own acoustic or electric guitar and a pick. Electric guitar players should also bring an amp and cords.

Painting: AcrylicLandscapes in Acrylic Paint

10/01/2026 10:00AM - 1:00PM Arnitz, Robin
 Students will learn to paint beautiful landscapes in this beginner to intermediate acrylic class. The class will cover acrylic techniques, atmospheric perspective (how to create depth in landscape), foliage, plus some fun, alternative ways to approach landscape that may surprise you.

Abstract Gelli Printing and Collage

10/07/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM
 Hamburger, Ryan
 Explore the fascinating world of abstract collage and gelli plate printing in this dynamic beginner's course. Designed for those eager to unleash their creativity, this class blends traditional and modern techniques to create stunning, one-of-a-kind artworks using a gelli plate, acrylic paint, and paper. Delve into the vibrant realm of gelli plate printing, where spontaneity meets technique. Learn the basics of creating monoprints using gelli plates, exploring methods to transfer intricate patterns and textures onto paper. Develop skills in color mixing and layering to produce captivating prints that reflect your individual style. Throughout the course, you will receive personalized guidance and constructive feedback, empowering you to refine your techniques and build confidence in your artistic journey. Whether you are a seasoned artist looking to expand your repertoire or a newcomer eager to explore mixed media, this course offers a nurturing environment to cultivate your creativity and create compelling abstract artworks through collage and gelli plate printing.

Painting: OilOil Painting 2

09/29/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM Norsworthy, Sarah
 Enjoy continued exploration of oil paint as a medium, having taken Oil Painting for Beginners, or having some experience working with oils previously. We will explore abstracting from observation, developing a personal narrative, working from memory, as well as some painting in the landscape.

Abstract Oils with Cold Wax Medium and Mixed Media

10/30/2026 10:00AM - 2:00PM Gogrof, Andrea
 Discover a new creative medium when you combine the classic, rich surfaces of oil painting with the translucent depth and varied textures of cold wax. Exploring these mediums along with acrylic, charcoal, pastels, and ink, including collage, we experiment, discover and learn new ways to give expression to our inner landscape of forms and color.

Painting: Watercolor

Abstract Watercolors

10/06/2026 10:00AM - 10:50AM

Hamburger, Ryan

Combine the expressive, personal, object-free vision of abstraction with the smaller, intimate beauty of watercolors. The focus of this class is on the elements of design, color and harmony, line and shape while creating an exciting and compelling painting that expresses a personal inner vision. Often alluding to nature or a state of mind, Abstract Watercolors will carry the painter to the beauty of feelings, spirit, and imagination

Watercolors for Beginners

10/10/2026 10:00AM - 12:00PM Case, Sam

Watercolor is one of the most versatile and approachable painting mediums. In this introductory course we'll be exploring what the medium can do. We'll experiment with watercolors and learn how to blend colors, layer, and play with other materials like sugar and soap to achieve different effects. This class will focus on basic techniques so that you walk away with a solid foundation to take to your next fabulous artwork!

Wildflowers in Watercolor & Ink

11/10/2026 6:30PM - 9:00PM Bundi, Robin

Capture the beauty of wildflowers with watercolor and ink! In this class, we'll explore how expressive linework and luminous watercolor washes work together to create lively botanical pieces. Learn techniques for sketching flowers, simplifying complex forms, and adding color, texture, and personality to your work. Perfect for beginners and experienced artists alike, this class is a chance to slow down, observe nature, and create vibrant floral art.

Landscapes in Watercolor

11/14/2026 10:00AM - 12:00PM Case, Sam

Through hands-on exercises, you'll practice watercolor techniques, ultimately discovering your personal direction in the realm of watercolor landscapes.

Portraits in Watercolor & Gouache

11/14/2026 1:00PM - 3:00PM Case, Sam

Watercolor is a beautiful way to capture the unique life and light in the people around us. Join us for an introduction to water-media portraits as we explore expressive portraiture. We recommend some experience with watercolor or gouache paint, but the class is designed to focus on painting so no portrait drawing experience is needed.

Painting: Other

Introduction to Gouache

10/10/2026 1:00PM - 3:00PM Case, Sam

Gouache is a favorite medium of illustrators and animators, but it's something that many people may not have used before. If you enjoy watercolor or acrylic painting, gouache is the perfect addition to your kit. Join me on to learn a little about the history of this versatile paint and how you can use it and combine it with other paints to make your own gorgeous illustrations and paintings.

Photography

Nature Photography: Intermediate

10/10/2026 9:00AM - 11:00AM Stahl, Robert

The main emphasis in this nature class will be on developing the 'Art of Seeing' to free up one's creative skills. Participants will want to have either a digital DSLR or mirrorless camera to use. Advice and guidelines will be provided on improving composition/design along with how to capture light more dramatically. Also will be information on lenses, filters, and macro techniques. Tripod required. Class includes two Sunday morning field trips on October 11 & 18 with the instructor (details given in class). Instructor's work has appeared in National Geographic publications.

Practice pattern reading, choosing the right fabrics and laying out fabric to create a finished piece you can be proud of. Whether you want to re-decorate your home, make crafts or clothes, we'll get you stitching in the right direction. You will sew three projects in class; fabric and patterns for each project provided by the instructor. Please bring a sewing machine in good working order, power cord, foot control, bobbins, operator's manual (if available), sharp scissors, tape measure and straight pins. This class is not open to students under the age of 18.

Beginning Sewing 2: The Next Level

10/31/2026 9:00AM - 3:00PM Johnson, O'Lisa
Want to sew more? This course focuses on altering the home sewing pattern for a better fit and a custom design. You will use additional techniques and applications to learn and sew different seam finishes, collars, sleeves, buttons, zippers, pockets, and much more allowing you to build on your sewing and design skills. Fabric, patterns, and additional supplies are provided by the instructor. Please have a sewing machine in good working order that will stitch through a variety of fashion fabrics, power cord, foot control, bobbins, operator's manual (if available), sharp scissors, tape measure, and straight pins. This class is not open to students under the age of 18.

Alter This - Alter That!

12/12/2026 9:00AM - 3:00PM Johnson, O'Lisa
Get more wear from your garments by learning "simple"; alterations and repair techniques. In this class you will learn how to alter hems and waistlines to create a fitted garment. Bring 2 or 3 of your favorite wardrobe pieces to alter in class, along with scissors, sewing machine and power cord in good working order. Sewing experience and an operational sewing machine are required for this class. Please make sure your machine will sew apparel knit, woven, and bulky fabrics. A personal supply tool pack specific to altering seams will be provided by the instructor. This class is not open to students under the age of 18.

Wood Carving & Burning

Pyrography

10/19/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM Shojaeii, Saman
Discover the art of pyrography, also known as woodburning, in this focused one-day workshop. Students will learn how to use heat-based woodburning tools to create clean lines, textures, and decorative patterns on wood.

This hands-on class introduces essential pyrography techniques, including tool handling, pressure control, temperature adjustment, line work, shading, and layering. The workshop is designed to help students build a strong foundation in woodburning while creating a finished piece during class.

This class is suitable for beginners as well as those with some prior experience. Step-by-step demonstrations and individual guidance will be provided throughout the session.

All tools and materials are provided, so students can focus entirely on the creative process. By the end of the workshop, each participant will leave with a completed pyrography project and the confidence to continue exploring woodburning techniques on their own.

Carving & Painting Ornaments

11/02/2026 6:00PM - 9:00PM Shojae, Saman
Create hand carved and hand painted pieces inspired by winter holiday traditions. In this seasonal workshop, you'll learn carving techniques, explore surface detailing, and practice paint finishes while making a variety of festive projects, including classic Christmas ornaments. Whether you're building your holiday decor or crafting handmade gifts, this class offers a fun, creative way to develop your skills and produce charming winter keepsakes.

Writing

Write a Feature Film

09/30/2026 6:30PM - 8:00PM Thompson, Nick
Got an idea for a movie but not sure how to turn it into a script? This class walks you through the process of writing a feature film, from shaping your idea to building a strong structure and revising your draft. You'll learn how screenplays work and how to tell a story that connects with an audience.

Each class includes short writing exercises, examples from films, and discussion. You'll look at different ways to structure a story and develop your own approach. Come ready to write, share, and start building your script.

Poetry Writing for Everyone

10/03/2026 11:00AM - 1:00PM

Edenfield, Bryan

Lautréamont believed poetry belongs to everyone. The Surrealists saw it as a kind of magic. For many writers across time, poetry has been a way to speak freely and make sense of lived experience.

In this class, you'll write from prompts and read poems from a range of eras and voices. You'll share your work with others in a space that values curiosity, respect, and thoughtful feedback. The focus isn't on perfection or theory. It's on showing up honestly, working through ideas on the page, and letting language do its work.

How to Write a Novel in 30 Days

10/07/2026 6:30PM - 8:00PM Hall, Leslie

Whether you want to write a novel, short story, or even nonfiction, writers can use the fundamentals of write-a-novel-in-30-days to set goals, make a plan, and practice writing fast first drafts. The principles of the 30-day novel can support any stretch goal, help create new writing habits, and prove that you can write more than you ever have before. And it can be done in any time period. This process is a lesson in writing without editing-learning to create messy first drafts. A great class for writers at any level with an idea or a work in progress.

Creative Writing 2

10/08/2026 6:00PM - 8:00PM Bolan, Chelsea
Creative Writing 2 is a 6-week class for anyone looking to develop their writing through practice, discussion, and community support. You can write in any genre and bring in your own work, whether it's a finished draft, a work in progress, or something new you've written during class.

This creative writing class focuses on giving and receiving feedback that is thoughtful, honest, and helpful. You'll learn how to use that feedback to revise and move your writing forward. In-class writing time and conversations will help spark ideas and give you fresh ways to look at your work.

By the end of the course, you'll have revised one or two pieces, built your feedback and revision skills, and added new writing to your practice.

Creative Writing 3

10/08/2026 2:00PM - 4:00PM Bolan, Chelsea
Creative Writing 3 is for writers who have completed Creative Writing 2 and are looking to further develop work created in that class with community support. As in CW2, you can write in any genre and bring in your writing for review and discussion at any stage in the writing process--be it the next chapter of your novel or memoir, scenes for a screenplay, a rough draft of an essay, or new batch of poems. This class will help support and sustain your work through thoughtful, honest, and helpful feedback. In-class writing exercises and conversation will help spark ideas and give you fresh ways to look at your writing--and keep moving it forward.

Introduction to Creative Writing

10/09/2026 2:00PM - 4:00PM Bolan, Chelsea
Introduction to Creative Writing is a playful, generative writing course for anyone who wants to write in the community of others and cultivate a creative writing practice. You will use prompts and writing activities to help you leap the boundaries of your brain, explore genres, and create and curate your own material to expand into creative writing projects. In addition, you will learn the art of workshop and how to give and receive useful feedback. In this supportive environment, you'll gain confidence as a writer, learning to trust your process and your work. By the end of the 6-week course, you will have developed a regular writing practice, established a writing community, and completed several original works of creative writing.

Surrealist Creative Writing

10/19/2026 7:00PM - 9:00PM Edenfield, Bryan
Surrealism challenges how you think and create. This class uses playful writing exercises and group activities to spark unexpected ideas. You'll explore key artists and writers that shaped surrealism, like André Breton, Leonora

Carrington, and Georges Bataille. Through experimentation and collaboration, you'll break habits, embrace spontaneity, and write in ways you never have before.

Writing A Short Memoir

10/19/2026 6:30PM - 8:30PM Dubois, Christine
Turn your life experiences--dramatic and everyday--into a powerful short memoir. Tell the story of your life in bite-sized chunks. Learn the process of writing a short memoir piece: from selecting and reflecting on your experience, to writing and publishing your story.

Canva for Beginners

09/30/2026 7:00PM - 9:00PM

Sweeney, Michele

Learn the ins and outs of this design platform for creating graphics for social media, blogs, websites, and other visual content such as presentations and even book publishing. We will also cover built-in video creation and AI tools. Utilize this platform effectively for both personal and professional content needs. No graphic design background required. Students need a paid Canva Pro account. This is a hands-on class.

AI Habits for Working Professionals

10/01/2026 6:00PM - 8:00PM Nance, Alvin
AI tools are easy to access. Using them well in your actual work is a different thing.

This three-week course focuses on building a small, reliable set of AI habits you can put to work immediately. Each session is practical and hands-on, with exercises drawn from everyday professional tasks: writing, summarizing, thinking through decisions, preparing for conversations.

You don't need a technical background to get something real out of this. Whether you've never opened an AI tool or you use one occasionally but inconsistently, you'll leave each session with something concrete you can try before the next one.

By the end of the series, you'll have a clear sense of where AI genuinely helps, where it doesn't, and how to stay in control of what it produces. That confidence comes from practice, not from memorizing features.

Getting Started with AI

10/06/2026 7:00PM - 8:30PM Pharr, Derek
Curious about artificial intelligence but don't speak tech? This class is designed for everyday learners who want to understand what AI is, how it works, and why it matters—without needing a computer science background. We'll explore the basics of machine learning, algorithms, and real-world applications through simple language, interactive demos, and group discussion. Whether you're a small business owner, educator, artist, or just AI-curious, you'll leave with the tools to engage confidently with one of today's most powerful technologies.

Canva: What's New + Advanced Features

10/28/2026 7:00PM - 8:30PM

Sweeney, Michele

Ready to go beyond the basics? This hands-on online class is designed for students who already use Canva and want to explore its more advanced features and latest updates.

We'll take a deeper dive into tools that help you design faster, stay consistent, and create more polished, professional content. You'll explore newer features, hidden tools, and workflow tips that make a big difference in how you use Canva day to day.

Whether you're creating content for social media, marketing, or personal projects, this class will help you get more out of the platform without overcomplicating your process.

You'll leave with practical skills, updated techniques, and a better understanding of what Canva can really do. Students will need a Canva Pro account set up before class; this class is hands-on.

Mindfulness & Yoga

Yoga For The Body & Mind

10/15/2026 6:00PM - 8:00PM Bernstein, Tara
Helping people become more in touch with their bodies and gain hold of the mind is the focus of this workshop. When we lose touch with our bodies it can feel like we are walking around as a body without a head. Tools such as Yoga postures, and breath will be used to bring us into the body, in spite of distractions.

During this workshop the Hindu concept of Citta or Consciousness will be discussed. According to Yoga theory, the mind has three parts. We will explore the components of the mind together as well as have space and time to self-reflect. This course is open to Yoga practitioners as well as those who have never practiced Yoga postures.

Meditation in Everyday Life

10/20/2026 6:30PM - 8:00PM
Specterman, PhD, Randi Valerie
This class will review the principles and practices of mindfulness meditation with a special emphasis on how to bring what is learned in class into our everyday lives. Each class will focus on a particular form of meditation and how its benefits can enhance our physical, mental and emotional well-being. Students will learn how to maintain a regular meditation practice at home and what resources are available to deepen their practice beyond the classroom.

Movement

Tai Chi Ruler: Simple Exercises for Health and Longevity

09/29/2026 10:00AM - 10:55AM Sharp, Dennis
Tai Chi Ruler (Chih) is a form of Taoist Yoga (Dao-yin) that features 12 easy-to-learn exercises that are practiced with (or without) a Chih, a special wooden dowel that is held between the palms to help guide the circulation of vital energy (Qi). Easier to learn than Tai Chi with all the same great health benefits, Tai Chi Chih is a complete low-impact aerobic system that relieves stress, improves respiration, increases circulation and enhances neuro-muscular coordination.

Sustaining Vitality: Qigong

10/01/2026 10:00AM - 10:55AM Sharp, Dennis
Increase vitality, give your immune system a boost, and feel more energetic. Qigong is based on the principle of balancing your body's natural energy (Qi) through meditation, breathing, and movement exercises that are easy to learn and put into practice. This class focuses on three types of Qigong: meditative relaxation, movement exercises, and healing sounds. Come join us in this fun informative class.

French Macarons From Scratch

10/25/2026 2:00PM - 5:00PM

Sweeney, Michele

Bake along with Chef Michele as you learn how to create delicious French macarons (not to be confused with coconut macaroons). These cookies are made with almond flour and have a delicate crispy shell and a soft, chewy center. We will be making chocolate macarons with white chocolate raspberry ganache to fill your macarons. Chef Michele will give you recipes and pointers for switching up your ganache to create holiday flavors like peppermint white chocolate and how to use fruit to infuse your ganache.

Holiday Pie Making

11/08/2026 2:00PM - 5:00PM

Sweeney, Michele

Flaky or cardboard - what's going on with pie crust? It's not luck. Bake along with Chef Michele in this live online class and learn the science and technique behind creating tender, foolproof pie crusts you can rely on every time.

You'll make and bake a salted caramel apple pie with a classic lattice top right from your own kitchen. Along the way, you'll build confidence working with dough, learn how to avoid common mistakes, and understand what actually makes a crust tender and flaky.

You'll also get recipes for chocolate cream pie, pumpkin pie, and Chef Michele's personal favorite, cheesecake so you can expand your holiday baking lineup.

Holiday Bread Baking: Yeast & Quick Breads

11/14/2026 2:00PM - 5:00PM

Sweeney, Michele

Bake along with Chef Michele in this live online class and learn how to make three versatile breads perfect for the holiday season while building confidence with both yeast and quick bread techniques.

You'll make a soft, buttery garlic and herb Parker House style pull-apart loaf using a yeast-based dough, perfect for sharing at holiday dinners. You'll also bake a gingerbread streusel coffee cake, a quick bread that's ideal for breakfast or hosting guests and freezes beautifully.

In addition, you'll prepare cheddar chive buttermilk biscuits to freeze and bake later, giving you a ready-to-go option for fresh biscuits without the day-of effort.

This class focuses on approachable techniques so you can understand the difference between yeast and quick breads and feel confident making both at home. You'll leave with go-to recipes and practical skills you can use all season long.

Holiday Cookie Decorating: Build a Wreath Centerpiece

12/12/2026 1:00PM - 5:00PM

Sweeney, Michele

Create a holiday centerpiece that's almost too pretty to eat! Join award-winning Sugar Artist and Food Network Competitor Chef Michele Sweeney as you decorate a festive holiday wreath cookie made from multiple sugar cookie pieces that come together to form one beautiful display.

Designed with beginners in mind, this hands-on class will introduce you to the fundamentals of decorating with royal icing. You'll learn how to color icing, achieve the right icing consistencies, outline and flood cookies, add dimension and decorative details, and assemble your decorated pieces into a stunning holiday wreath perfect for gifting, entertaining, or displaying at your holiday table.

Along the way, you'll pick up professional decorating tips and techniques that can be applied to future cookie projects. Students will also receive a digital copy of Chef Michele's Cookies for All Occasions cookbook, packed with recipes, decorating tips, and inspiration for future creations.

Bring an apron, wear comfortable clothes, and don't forget a sack lunch. You'll leave with new skills, decorating confidence, a festive edible creation, and resources to continue decorating at home long after the holidays are over.

Cooking

Gnocchi from Scratch

From Prospecting to Closeout: Mastering the Grant Funding Lifecycle

10/03/2026 9:00AM - 12:00PM Gephart, Wedni

Grant funding can be a powerful resource, but only when organizations are prepared to pursue it thoughtfully and sustainably. This course is designed for staff and leaders at nonprofits, government agencies, and community-based organizations who are new to grants or want to strengthen how they approach grant opportunities.

Rather than focusing on proposal writing alone, the course helps participants understand grant readiness, funding strategy, and the systems required to pursue and manage grants responsibly. Participants will learn how funders think, how to assess organizational fit for funding opportunities, and how to build internal practices that support successful grant pursuit and stewardship.

The course addresses common misconceptions about grants, explores equity-centered grantmaking considerations, and provides practical tools for deciding when -- and when not -- to apply. Emphasis is placed on clarity, alignment, and long-term capacity building rather than chasing funding at all costs.
